

18 July 2018, University of Aveiro, Portugal

Dear ANM2018 delegates,

It is with great pleasure we welcome you all to the 11th series of ANM, ANM2018 (<http://www.advanced-nanomaterials-conference.com/>) at the University of Aveiro, Portugal. The conference will be organized in six parallel sessions: Advanced Nanomaterials, Polymer Materials, Hydrogen Energy, Graphene Materials and Magnetic Materials and Nanoelectronics. We have colleagues from over 50 countries participating in this prestigious conference with more than 400 technical presentations. We take this opportunity to thank all organizing members who have taken great effort to make this conference successful, as well as the Associated Journals, Sponsors, Exhibitors and Media partners for their constant support and contribution to ANM2018.

The travel tip to reach Aveiro is available at <http://www.advanced-nanomaterials-conference.com/wp-content/uploads/2015/10/Travel-ANM2018.pdf>. More details are available on ANM2018 conference website-Travel Page.

We hope you have an enjoyable week in this beautiful city of Aveiro and are able to get a taste of its beautiful sights, culture and cuisine. The ANM2018 team is happy to provide you with any assistance that you may require during the event.

Yours Sincerely,
